SELF-REGULATION' OF ADVENTURE TOURISM WORKSHOP

You are invited to attend a workshop on Self-Regulation in the Adventure Tourism sector. This is part of a country wide consultative process in which the views and opinions of all role players are being sought.

The initiative is driven jointly by the National Department of Tourism in partnership with SATSA. A representative steering committee has been established and key members will present on various facets of Adventure Tourism and implications on regulatory processes.

We look forward to seeing you there!
