MEMORANDUM OF THE OBJECTS OF THE TOURISM BILL, 2012

1. PROBLEM STATEMENT

The current Tourism Act, 1993 (Act No. 72 of 1993) (“Tourism Act”), predates the White Paper on the Development and Promotion of Tourism in South Africa, 1996 (“White Paper”) and does not support the implementation of the White Paper as a broader policy framework. The Tourism Act also predates the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (“Constitution”). High on the list of challenges within the tourism sector are—

- (a) the fragmentation of tourism planning across the three spheres of government;
- (b) inadequate databases of tourism businesses and the products, services and facilities they provide and its associated lack of reliable market information; and
- (c) the poor integration of tourism with other sectoral policies.

2. POLICY OBJECTIVE

2.1 Tourism is identified as a priority economic sector to fulfil government’s imperative to create sustainable jobs and to ensure that the lack of wealth is addressed in all areas, particularly in the rural areas. The White Paper spells out the functions of National Government as establishing, facilitating and enabling appropriate legal and fiscal frameworks for the tourism industry and facilitating the sustainable and responsible development of the industry, by formulating appropriate development guidelines and regulatory measures.

2.2 In the national sphere of government, tourism is currently regulated by the Tourism Act. The object of that Act is mainly to establish the South African Tourism Board and to provide for the marketing of South Africa as a tourist destination by the South African Tourism Board. Provincial spheres of government have promulgated their own tourism legislation. These pieces of legislation do not present a coordinated regulatory approach in the management and development of tourism. Uncoordinated, inconsistent and fragmented tourism planning has led to unnecessary duplication of functions and resources amongst the three spheres of government and has presented challenges for tourism businesses operating across provincial boundaries.

2.3 Even in its amended form, the Tourism Act does not address the problems that are identified in the White Paper. It also does not reflect the requirement contained in section 41(1)(h)(iv) of the Constitution that all spheres of government must coordinate their actions and legislation with one another. This is so precisely because the Tourism Act was promulgated before the White Paper. The Tourism Act is also not aligned to the Constitution in that it does not recognise the concurrent legislative functional competence of national and provincial spheres of government in tourism.

3. DEPARTMENT OF TOURISM

The President established a Ministry of Tourism and subsequently a Department of Tourism was established by Proclamation on 7 July 2009. The mandate of the Department of Tourism is to create a conducive environment for the tourism sector to increase its direct contribution to the Gross Domestic Product. The Tourism Act does not recognise the role of the national Department of Tourism as a policy and strategy maker for the management, growth and development of tourism. A sound regulatory framework is therefore necessary for the Department of Tourism to be able to exploit its mandate.

4. PROPOSED LEGAL FRAMEWORK

The proposed legal framework is intended to close gaps in the implementation of the Tourism White Paper and to align the legal framework to government objectives and to the Constitution. The proposed regulatory framework provides for the development and promotion of sustainable tourism for the social, economic and environmental benefit of South African citizens and for the enjoyment of all its residents and foreign visitors. It provides for the continued existence of the South African Tourism Board to effectively market South Africa as a tourist destination domestically and internationally. It furthermore provides for the establishment of the Tourism Grading Council to implement the national grading system for tourism.

5. MAIN PROVISIONS OF BILL

5.1 The main provisions of the Bill can be summarised as follows:

Preamble

5.2 The preamble seeks to provide a background and reason for the envisaged legislation.

Chapter 1 (Interpretation and objects)

5.3 The Chapter seeks to define certain words and expressions. Provisions are made for a clause seeking to establish the general objectives of the Bill and to determine how conflicts with other laws are to be dealt with. (Clauses 1 to 3.)

Chapter 2 (National Tourism Sector Strategy, norms and standards, codes of good practice)

5.4 The Chapter seeks to oblige the Minister of Tourism (“Minister”), following a consultative process, to establish a National Tourism Sector Strategy to promote the objects of the envisaged Act. The Strategy must at least provide for strategies, objectives, indicators, targets, plans, guidelines, procedures and institutional arrangements relating to the promotion, development and transformation of tourism. (Clause 4.)

5.5 The Chapter furthermore seeks to authorise the Minister to gather information relating to tourism and to create a database of information on tourism business for the purposes of planning, and with a view to the development and growth in the tourism sector. (Clauses 5 and 6.)

5.6 Provision is made for the Minister to determine norms and standards, and indicators to measure compliance with such norms and standards, for—

- (i) practising responsible tourism contemplated in clause 2(2);
- (ii) achieving service excellence in the tourism sector;
- (iii) promoting the objects of this Act; and
- (iv) the provisioning of tourism information services to the public.

5.7 The norms and standards and indicators must be determined after a consultative process with the members of the executive councils of provinces and with the public. (Clause 7.)

5.8 The Bill seeks to authorise the Minister to issue codes of good practice within the tourism sector to guide conduct relating to tourism services, facilities and products. (Clause 8.)

Chapter 3 (South African Tourism Board)

5.9 Chapter 4 seeks to provide for the continued existence of the South African Tourism Board (“Board”). Clause 10 of the Bill seeks to specify the functions of the Board. The clause aims to reaffirm the mandate of the Board to market South Africa, its products and facilities internationally and domestically. The Board is authorised to establish a National Conventions Bureau to market the Republic as a business event destination. (Clauses 10 and 11.)

5.10 Provision is made for the composition and appointment by the Minister of members of the Board. The Board will consist of at least nine and no more than 13 members. Provision is further made for matters usually associated with the establishment of a statutory body, such as the term of office of members of the Board, their disqualification from membership and their vacating of office. Further provisions seek to provide for matters relating to meetings, funding, financial accountability and remuneration of members, amongst others. (Clauses 13 to 23.)

5.11 Provision is also made for the appointment of the chief executive officer of the Board, who will be responsible for the efficient management of the business and the affairs of the Board. Provision is furthermore made for the Board to determine an employment and remuneration policy applicable to personnel of the Board and for the chief executive officer to appoint personnel. (Clause 24.)

Chapter 4 (Grading system)

5.12 This Chapter seeks to authorise the Minister to develop a national grading system for tourism. The grading system must promote excellence in the provision of tourism services, facilities and products, amongst others. The grading system must make provision for schemes of which tourist businesses can obtain membership and for the use and display of insignia, such as a star or number of stars, indicating the grading awarded in terms of the scheme. (Clause 28.)

5.13 The Chapter furthermore seeks to establish the Tourism Grading Council (“Council”) which must implement and manage the national grading system. The Minister will have oversight of the Council. (Clauses 29 and 30.)

5.14 As in the case of the Board provided for in Chapter 3 of the Bill, Chapter 4 contains various clauses usually associated with the establishment of a statutory body. Since several of those clauses would have been exactly the same as those relating to the Board, were they to be inserted in Chapter 4, relevant clauses relating to the Board have been made applicable to the Council with the changes required by the context.

5.15 The Bill seeks to provide for appointment of a chief quality assurance officer who will be responsible for supervising the process of grading and for the strategic management of the grading system. (Clauses 40 to 43.)

5.16 Clause 44 seeks to authorise the Minister to assign oversight of the Council and of the performance of any function of the Council to the Department, the Board or any other suitable body which is subject to the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999). The purpose of the provision is to give the Minister a discretion which may be exercised as circumstance requires.

Chapter 5: Tourism Protection

5.17 This Chapter seeks to provide for the designation of an official as the Tourism Complaints Officer. Functions of the Tourism Complaints Officer include recommending to the Minister the accreditation of a scheme or arrangement established by or for a particular tourism sector to resolve tourist complaints, and to monitor the effectiveness of accredited schemes. The Chapter furthermore makes provision for the Complaints Officer to receive complaints in respect of tourism services, facilities or products and to channel such complaints to appropriate functionaries specified in clause 47.

Chapter 6: Tourist Guides

5.18 Section 22 of the Constitution provides that every citizen has the right to choose a trade, occupation or profession freely and that the practice of a trade, occupation or profession may be regulated by law. The Bill, and in particular Chapter 6, seeks to regulate the practice of the tourist guide profession.

5.19 The Bill seeks to provide for the appointment of an official as the National Registrar of Tourist Guides. The National Registrar will, amongst others, be responsible to maintain a central database of tourist guides; to prepare a code of conduct and ethics for tourist guides; to hear and determine appeals lodged against decisions of Provincial Registrars of Tourist Guides; and to liaise with roleplayers in the tourist sector with a view to facilitating growth in the sector and improving and maintaining standards in the tourist guiding sector. (Clause 48.)

5.20 Clause 49 seeks to provide for the appointment of Provincial Registrars of Tourist Guides by Members of the Executive Councils responsible for tourism in each province. The clause sets out the functions of Provincial Registrars, which include to register and maintain a registers of tourist guides within their province; to provide the National Registrar with applicable information; deal with complaints against tourist guides; exercise disciplinary powers over tourists guide; and disseminate information about registered tourist guides.

5.21 The procedure relating to the registration of tourist guides is provided for in clause 50. The clause furthermore requires tourist guides to show proof of competence determined by the South African Qualifications Authority. The Clause also seeks to specify the grounds for disqualification from registration as a tourist guide.

5.22 The rest of Chapter 6 of the Bill seeks to deal with matters such as the code of conduct and ethics with which tourist guides must comply; complaints against tourist guides; powers of a Provincial Registrar regarding the disqualification of tourist guides; disciplinary measures against tourist guides and appeals and reviews. (Clauses 52 to 58.)

Chapter 7: General

5.23 Chapter 7 seeks to deal with matters such as offences and penalties; regulations by the Minister; repeal of laws; transitional provisions and savings and the short title of the Bill (clauses 59 to 64). It would, for example, be an offence to use, in relation to tourist services, facilities or services, insignia depicting a star or number of stars which is greater than the number authorised to be depicted. It would furthermore be an offence to act as a tourist guide while not being registered as such.

5.24 Since the Bill seeks to repeal certain laws, provision is made in clause 63 and Schedule 1 to the Bill for certain transitional provisions and savings. The provisions in question seek to ensure a smooth transition between the old and new dispensation, and with the retention of any rights that may have accrued.

6. CONSULTATION

6.1 A systematic stakeholder consultation process with affected interest groups ranging from informal discussion to formal procedures was followed to ensure the widest possible input into the regulatory decision-making. Interest groups, including provincial and local spheres of government and the private sector, were consulted widely and in a timely fashion. The Director-General of the Department of Tourism started an intergovernmental consultation process with the heads of tourism in provincial governments, the South African Local Government Association, the South African Tourism Board and Provincial Tourism Authorities. The process culminated in the MINMEC which is the intergovernmental tourism forum of the Minister and Members of the Executive Committees (MECs) for Tourism. The MINMEC gave the Minister the go-ahead to start with Cabinet consultations on the Tourism Draft Bill as the legal regulatory framework for the management and development of tourism. Both the Director-General and the Minister held meetings with the private sector and organisations representing the private sector to discuss and receive inputs on the legal regulatory framework for tourism.

6.2 In 2010, the Minister appointed a panel of 32 experts from across all stakeholder groups in the tourism sector, with representation from both the public and private sector. This expert panel guided the development of a national tourism sector strategy. The National Tourism Sector Strategy was approved by Cabinet in 2011. The Strategy emphasises that whereas the White Paper constitutes an overarching policy framework for the promotion of tourism, the Tourism Act in its current form does not support the implementation of the White Paper as a broader policy framework and that the Tourism Act had not necessarily been aligned with constitutional imperatives.

7. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

There are no additional compliance costs associated with the development of a new legal framework for tourism.

8. IMPLICATIONS FOR PROVINCES

Tourism is a functional area of concurrent national and provincial legislative competence referred to in Schedule 4 to the Constitution. Should there be a conflict between national legislation and provincial legislation falling within a functional area listed in Schedule 4, section 146 of the Constitution applies. In terms of section 146(2) of the Constitution, national legislation that applies uniformly with regard to the country as a whole prevails over provincial legislation if, amongst others, the following conditions are met:

- “(b) The national legislation deals with a matter that, to be dealt with effectively, requires uniformity across the nation, and the national legislation provides that uniformity by establishing—
 - (i) norms and standards;
 - (ii) frameworks; or

- (iii) national policies.
- (c) The national legislation is necessary for—
 - (iv) the promotion of economic activities across provincial boundaries”.

The Bill seeks to constitute legislation contemplated in the said section 146(2) of the Constitution.

9. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

9.1 The State Law Advisers and the Department of Tourism are of the opinion that this Bill should be dealt with in terms of the procedure established by section 76(1) or (2) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, since it falls within a functional area listed in Schedule 4 to the Constitution, namely “Tourism”.

9.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
