

Deputy Minister Xasa to engage with the Khayelitsha Community on tourism issues

15 February 2017

Issues pertaining to youth skill development initiatives and employment will feature prominently on the agenda when Deputy Minister of Tourism, Ms Tokozile Xasa, engages with the Khayelitsha community in the Western Cape on 01 March 2017.

The Khayelitsha Imbizo will be a two way interactive platform where the community will interact with local leaders and members of the Western Cape Tourism executive in an effort to promote active participation in tourism initiatives.

Deputy Minister Xasa will share information on how our Government, under the Tourism, is working to develop the sector, upskill the youth and create employment opportunities that will ultimately alleviate poverty.
