More than 300 youth to enter the tourism industry as world class chefs

09 December 2019

Minister of Tourism, Ms Mmamoloko Kubayi-Ngubane, will preside over a graduation ceremony to honour learners who successfully completed the National Youth Chefs Training Programme (NYCTP).

Initiated in 2011, the NYCTP forms a part of the objectives of the National Tourism Sector Strategy to address skills shortages in the sector, whilst contributing towards government's greater objective of creating employment opportunities for the youth.

More than three hundred youth from the Gauteng, Limpopo, Free State, Northern Cape, North West and Mpumalanga Provinces will receive City and Guilds accredited qualifications in Food Preparation and Cooking (Level 1 to 3), and enter the hospitality industry as world class chefs.

Members of the media are invited to attend:

Date: Wednesday, 11 December 2019
Venue: Regina Mundi Church - Soweto, Gauteng
Time: 11h00 – 16h00
