National Tourism Sector Forum

21 September 2017

The National Tourism Sector Forum will meet on 22 September 2017 to discuss the country's macro-economic outlook and implications for tourism sector as well as provide an update on the National Tourism Sector Strategy Review and key programmes of the Department.

The Department of Tourism commissioned the review of the NTSS in 2015 in order to ensure alignment to the National Development Plan (NDP) as well as the Tourism Act 3 of 2014.

The NTSF is an integral forum of the sector's implementation mechanism for the National Tourism Sector Strategy. It is attended by a sector-wide range of stakeholders including Industry and its constituent sub-sectors and public sector partners who have an impact on tourism sector.
