Tourism Transformation Summit 2017

25 October 2017

The Department of Tourism will host the National Tourism Transformation Summit from 30 to 31 October 2017 in Gauteng under the theme: “Tourism for All: Transform, Grow and Sustain”.

The summit will offer the sector a platform to reflect and engage on the current state of transformation in the tourism, with a view of finding solutions that will promote its advancement.

More than 350 delegates are expected to attend the two day summit, which is poised to not only set the tone for transformation, but will also promote business linkages and share transformative investment opportunities; and information on how tourism SMMEs and black owned entities can access funding mechanisms to succeed in the sector.

Minister Tokozile Xasa will share the findings of the State of Sector Transformation Report and launch the Tourism B-BBEE Portal and Tourism Transformation Fund.

Members of the media are invited as follows:
