Tourism hosts Enterprise Development Awareness Campaign for Gauteng SMMEs

13 February 2018

The Department of Tourism in collaboration with the City of Ekurhuleni will host a business expo to showcase the services and initiatives under the Enterprise Development and Support Programme that will ensure the sustainability of SMMEs in the sector.

Deputy Minister Elizabeth Thabethe will be open the one-day expo that will feature presentations by various organisations, exhibitions and one-on-one consultations with government and financial entities. Entrepreneurs will leave the expo capacitated and empowered with skills and information to succeed in the tourism industry.
