QCTO mandate in SDA

- ‘the QCTO is responsible for
 - establishing and maintaining occupational standards and qualifications’
 - ‘the quality assurance of occupational standards and qualifications and learning in and for the workplace’
 - Designing and developing occupational standards and qualifications and submitting them to the SAQA for registration on the NQF
 - Ensuring the quality of occupational standards and qualifications and learning in and for the workplace;
(SDA, 2008, Section 26H)

SDA: ‘Occupational Qualification means a qualification associated with a trade, occupation or profession resulting from work-based learning and consisting of knowledge unit standards, practical unit standards and work experience unit standards’

(NQF Act – ‘part qualification’ = assessed unit of learning that is registered as part of a qualification’)

Purpose of Occupational Qualifications

The purpose of an occupational qualification is to qualify a learner to practice an occupation, reflected on the Organising Framework for Occupations (OFO) or an occupational specialisation related to an occupation that is reflected on the OFO.

Requesting to develop an qualification

- Intention to develop a qualification (email, phone call, discussion)
- QCTO Application Form to be completed. In completing the application for assistance on issues of the OFO and qualifications and trades that may be affected – consult a SETA
- Rationale is required (why is the qualification needed, is it linked to scarce or critical skills). Consult relevant Sector Education and Training Authority (SETA)

Application received and processed by QCTO

- Completed application is submitted to QCTO
- Pre-scoping meetings conducted by the QCTO
- Scoping meeting conducted by the QCTO

Standard items covered on the agenda

- a) Confirmation of the rationale
- b) Scope of work – actual occupation or specialisation for which a qualification is to be developed
- c) Stakeholder Representation
- d) Qualifications and learning programmes that may be affected
- e) Identify a suitable body or organisation to act as DQP
- f) Identify a suitable body or organisation to fulfil the role of AQP

- Application may be confirmed to proceed with development if the outcome of the scoping justifies so.
- Application may be rejected if :
 - Changes to the scope results in a different occupation code
 - Non agreement on way forward
 - There is an overlap (same occupation and specialisation) with a previously approved application (applicant may be referred to the relevant DQP)

Service Level Agreement (SLA) preparation and signing

- Proposed DQP contracts a Qualification Development Facilitator (QDF)
- DQP and QDF determines timelines per SLA requirements
- DQP finalises SLA inputs and submits to QCTO
- QCTO signs off the SLA and implements
