1. AIM OF THE MANUAL

Section 32 (1) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 provides that everyone has the right of access to any information held by the state and any information held by another person that is required for the exercise or protection of any right. The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) (herein after referred to as "PAIA"). PAIA however recognises however that the right of access to information is subject to certain justifiable limitations.

The details of records kept by a public body are contained in a book commonly known as a manual. The manual therefore relates to the records kept by the public body. The records kept pertain to the business / functions of each and every unit. To distinguish between the functions / business of each unit, the records of each unit are numbered differently. Each record also carries a disposal instruction.

Apart from records, also called files, the manual also contains information on the addresses of the Head of the Department as well as the Information Officer/s of the public body and also the name of each unit in the public body, its core function and a list of all records kept by the public body.

The Department's categorises the records and information (relevant to the functions and services of the Department) into the following broad categories:

- 5.1 Policies, strategies, delegations, government notices and legislation
- 5.2 Press statements and speeches
- 5.3 Departmental personnel records

Included in this manual is the subject of files. Files are the tool used to preserve records in the Department. Each file has a number and a brief description of the records kept in the file as well as the subject of the file. Each file has its own number, the opening and closing dates and the disposal instruction of that file. The disposal instruction is important because it determines what must happen with the file after a specific period of time has lapsed, e.g. A10 would mean that the file must be sent to NASA (National Archives of South Africa) ten years after the closing date on the file cover. The Tourism Ministry has its own record keeping system, similar to that of the Department.

6. ACCESS TO RECORDS IN TERMS OF SECTION 14(1) (e)

The Department must, in terms of section 15(1), submit to the Minister of Justice and Correctional Services a list of records that are automatically available to access without a request to publish in the Government Gazette.

The Department has submitted to the Minister of Justice and Correctional Services a list of information that is automatically available to publish in the gazette. This information is also available on the website of the Department: <http://www.tourism.gov.za>.

9. REQUEST PROCEDURE

9.1 Requests for access to information

Everyone has the right to request access to recorded information held by the Department, subject to the request being made on the prescribed form and that the prescribed fees are paid. Access is also subject to the grounds of exclusion found in Chapter 4 of PAIA. The request may be made by anyone who act in their own interests or act on behalf of someone who cannot do so themselves.

9.1.1 Form for Completion

A requester must complete the prescribed form which-

- (a) can be found in the Regulations to PAIA;
- (b) is on the website of the SAHR at www.sahrc.org.za;
- (c) is attached to this document as an Annexure A; or
- (d) is obtainable from the Department's information centre located at the reception area of the Department's premises.

9.1.2 Process

- (a) The request for information must be submitted to:

Director-General
Private Bag X 424
PRETORIA
0001

Attention: Ms M Mathebula
TEL: +27 12 444 6732
Fax: +27 12 444 7040
Email: vtharage@tourism.gov.za

- (b) A requester must indicate if he or she would like to obtain a copy of the record or would like to inspect the record at the offices of the public body. Alternatively, if the record is not a paper copy document, it can then be viewed in the requested form, where possible.
- (b) If a requester asks for access in a particular form, then he or she will get access in the manner that has been asked for. This principle applies, unless doing so would interfere unreasonably with the running of the Department, or damage the record, or infringe a copyright not owned by the state. If for practical reasons, access cannot be given in the required form, but in an alternate manner, then the fee will be calculated according to the way that the requester first asked for it.

- (c) If, in addition to a written reply to their request for the record, the requester wants to be informed about the decision in any other way, for example, telephonically, this must be indicated.
- (d) If a requester is asking for the information on behalf of somebody else, the capacity in which the request is being made should be indicated.

9.2 Request on behalf of another person

If the request is made on behalf of another person, a requester must submit proof of the capacity in which he or she is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Deputy Information Officer.

9.3 Request by people with disabilities

- (a) If a requester is unable to read or write, or if he or she has a disability that prevents him or her from completing the prescribed form, then he or she can make a verbal request. The Deputy Information Officer (or his or her delegate) will then complete the form on behalf of the requester and give a copy of the completed form to the requester.
- (b) The Deputy Information Officer (or his or her delegate) will assist a requester to comply with the abovementioned requirements to request access to information, including referring a requester, if it is apparent that the request for information should have been made to another public body, to such other body.

9.4 Transfer of requests

- (a) Requests for records may be transferred to another public body in the following circumstances:
  - (i) When the record is in the possession of another public body;
  - (ii) The subject matter of the record is more closely associated with the functions of another public body;
  - (iii) The record was created for another public body, or was received first by another public body; or
  - (iv) The record contains commercial information relating to economic interests and the financial welfare of the Republic, and commercial activities of public bodies.
- (b) In such instances the Deputy Information Officer (or his or her delegate) would have to transfer the request to the other public body as soon as is reasonably possible, but no later than fourteen (14) days within receipt of the request. If the public body or the Information Officer to whom the request is made is in possession of the record and considers it helpful to do so to enable the Information

Officer of the other public body to deal with the request, the record or a copy of the record will be sent to that Information Officer.

- (c) If a request for access to a record has been transferred, it has to be computed from the date it was first received. All the relevant time periods that apply to a request for information have to be adhered to.

9.5 Notification of transfer

- (a) When a request for access has been transferred, the Deputy Information Officer making the transfer will immediately notify the requester of:
  - (i) the transfer;
  - (ii) the reasons for the transfer; and
